

Special Program to Support Frontline Medical Personnel and First Responders

To help support busy frontline medical personnel and first responders during the COVID-19 crisis, Skylark Dry Cleaning is offering free wash and fold services. This includes free pickup and delivery to your home. The idea is to eliminate one little chore to help busy professionals focus on what matters most.

Who is Eligible:

Physicians, nurses, and other frontline medical personnel and first responders.

What Are You Cleaning:

Typical laundry for your family. Clean, fold, and get into a drawer-ready condition. No more doing laundry!

What is the Cost:

Free, including free home delivery.

How Do I Sign Up?:

Go to SkylarkCleaning.com to sign up. Once you have, send us a note letting us know you want to participate in the Special Wash and Fold Program.

Limitations?:

Skylark reserves the right to limit participation based on resource limitations.

Thank you!
